

“Radical Human Ecology: Intercultural and Indigenous Approaches” (January 2012) edited by Lewis Williams, Rose Roberts and Alastair McIntosh.

This book evolved out of an international human ecology retreat I organized in Saskatchewan in 2008. In collaboration with the Centre for Human Ecology Scotland and as a result of the work of the Koru International Network it became a truly international undertaking with a range of 22 contributors throughout the world! I’m sorry it’s such a costly book. Please ask your library to order it – that will help Ashgate get it into paper-back. If you e-mail I can send PDFs of my personal contributions! More information.....(link to Ashgate page <http://www.ashgate.com/isbn/9780754677680>)

Want to know more or let your friends know about this book?

Radical Human Ecology Jan-PDF

Forthcoming reviews of this book coming out soon in:

- Human Ecology Review
- Resurgence Magazine
- The Journal of the Medical and Scientific Network
- ECOS

And others!

Check out www.kinincommon.com for upcoming book launches and other news about this book.